The ACA Membership Development Committee would like to wish all ACA members joy and cheer during this holiday season!

Please remember before you raise a toast to 2012, to renew your ACA membership before December 31st and have the chance to win three great Early Bird Prizes:

Laura Millar's award winning, "Archives: Principles and Practices," thanks to the Canadian distributor Ontario Library Association Store.

Mark Cronlund Anderson & Carmen L. Robertson, "Seeing Red: A History of Natives in Canadian Newspapers," an interesting read from the University of Manitoba Press.

And last but not least,

Carole Gerson, "Canadian Women in Print: 1750-1918," from Wilfrid Laurier Press hunkered down in Waterloo.

(See Details Below)

Sincerely,
John D. Lund, Chair
Membership Development Committee

Membership officially expires December 31st, while as a member you have access to the member portion of the website until January 31, 2012. Renewing is easy and can be completed online at the Members-Only website. Not yet a member or a returning member, you may complete a renewal form which is available on the general access portion of the ACA website.

1) Renew online at the Members-Only website: <https://www.members-archivists.ca/Default.aspx>

OR

2) Fill out a membership form and mail or fax it to the ACA Office:
<http://www.archivists.ca/content/membership-information-forms>

If you renew online, remember to check out all the features of our Members-Only collaboration site! You can personalize your profile, sign up and join the discussion for any Special Interest Section, and see what else is going on in the ACA.

New to the ACA, check out the benefits of membership at:
<http://archivists.ca/content/membership>.

The communication tools available to members at the ACA website have made it even easier to have direct input with members of the ACA executive and to keep abreast of topics relevant to you.

Should you have any questions regarding your membership, please contact the ACA office at aca@archivists.ca.
